(2) Sample Meritorious Sergeant and Corporal Promotion Board Announcement Letters
(3) Timetable of Recurring Events
(4) Meritorious Promotion Form (MCRD 1414/3)
(5) Sample Recommendation Letter to the CG

1. Purpose. To establish procedures for the submission of recommendations and selections for meritorious promotions to the grades of Private First Class (PFC) through Sergeant (Sgt).

2. Cancellation. Depot Order 1420.1C.

3. Background. Reference (a) establishes Marine Corps policy for the promotion of enlisted personnel. Amplifying instructions for meritorious promotions (to Private First Class through Sergeant) are contained herein. Meritorious promotion procedures for recruiters and drill instructors have been promulgated under reference (b).

4. Summary of Revision. This revision contains a substantial number of changes to paragraph 6 and should be completely reviewed.

5. Information

a. Reference (c) authorizes the Commanding General (CG) to effect meritorious promotions to the grades of Sergeant and Corporal on a quarterly basis. In addition, Commanding Officers (CO) are authorized to effect meritorious promotions to the grade of Lance Corporal on a quarterly basis and Private First Class on a monthly basis. Allocations for these promotions will be based upon the total on board population of Corporals, Lance Corporals, and Private First Classes on the first day of each fiscal quarter. Enclosure (1) provides information concerning the computation of these promotion allocations.

b. Quarterly meritorious promotion periods are:

Corporal to Sergeant: Feb, May, Aug, Nov

Lance Corporal to Corporal: Mar, Jun, Sep, Dec

Private First Class to Lance Corporal: Mar, Jun, Sep, Dec

c. Marines selected for meritorious promotion will be assigned a date of rank on the second day of the appropriate month indicated above.

d. A Depot Meritorious Promotion Board for Sergeants and Corporals will convene on a date to be determined by the Depot Sergeant Major the month prior to the promotion periods indicated above. The date, time and location will be promulgated in a letter by this Headquarters, as shown in enclosure (2).

e. The board will consist of:

Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2/3	Senior Member (non-voting)
SgtMaj, MCRD	Member
SgtMaj, Hq&SvcBn	Member
SgtMaj, RTR	Member
SgtMaj, W&FTBn	Member
Selected MGySgt from any Command	Member
Selected SNCO from Assistant Chief of Staff, Recruiting	Member
Depot Adjutant or Division Chief	Recorder (non-voting)

f. Enclosure (3) provides a timetable for the occurrence of monthly events relative to this program.

6. Action

a. COs Hq&SvcBn, RTR, W&FTBn, and Recruiting Districts

(1) Meritorious Sergeant and Corporal

(a) Forward nominations for meritorious promotion to the AC/S, G-1, (Attn: Depot Adjutant) to arrive not later than two working days prior to convening of the Depot Meritorious Promotion Board.

(b) Recommendations must include the following:

1 SRB with current BIR/BTR. (8TH/9TH Marine Corps District COs need only submit a copy of the right side of the SRB with the BIR/BTR).

2 Official photograph in accordance with reference (c).

3 J120 MCI Screen from JUMPS/MMS.

4 Completed Meritorious Promotion Evaluation Form (MCRD 1414/3), enclosure (4).

5 Name, complete address, and relationship of a relative of the Marine nominated to be notified by the CG if selected.

APR 06 2000

(2) Meritorious Lance Corporal

(a) Establish procedures for selecting superior Private First Class Marines for meritorious promotion to Lance Corporal. Determine allocations and effect meritorious promotions in accordance with reference (a) and enclosure (1). Records of the computation must be maintained. Prepare meritorious promotion warrants per reference (a).

(b) In compliance with the Command Recruiting Program (reference (d)), establish procedures for meritorious promotion to Lance Corporal for any Private First Class who refers two individuals that subsequently enlists or reenlists in the Marine Corps or Selected Marine Corps Reserve. Meritorious promotions effected under this authority will not count against the Command's allocations.

(3) Meritorious Private First Class

(a) Establish procedures for meritorious promotion of any Private to Private First Class, in recognition of outstanding leadership and/or performance.

(b) In compliance with the Command Recruiting Program (reference (d)), establish procedures for meritorious promotion to Private First Class of any Private who refers one individual that subsequently enlists or reenlists in the Marine Corps or Selected Marine Corps Reserve. However, a private on Permissive Temporary Additional Duty (PTAD) must refer two applicants to be promoted. Meritorious promotions effected under this authority will not count against the Command's allocations.

(c) The CO, RTR has authority in accordance with reference (a) to meritoriously promote 10 percent of the Private's graduating from each company, and those contract Private First Classes graduating as company honorman, to Lance Corporal when, in his opinion, such graduates have demonstrated outstanding leadership potential. The 10 percent figure will not include Marines who are guaranteed promotion under the Quality Enlistment Program. The CO, RTR will establish procedures to effect promotions under this authority and will maintain records of the computations.

b. AC/S, G-1

(1) Determine the authorized number of allocations for each meritorious promotion period in accordance with the instructions contained in reference (c). Disseminate allocations for meritorious promotions to the respective COs by the 5th of January, April, July, and October.

(2) Inform all COs of the time and location of the quarterly Depot Meritorious Promotion Board.

(3) Review each meritorious promotion package to ensure compliance with established criteria.

(4) Upon receipt of the CG's approval of the Meritorious Promotions, notify the COs of the results of the Board. Prepare congratulation letters and promotion warrants.

c. Senior Member, Depot Meritorious Promotions Board for Sergeant and Corporal

APR 06 2000

(1) Convene the Depot Meritorious Promotion Board for Sergeants and Corporals and select the best qualified Marine(s) for Meritorious Promotion.

(2) Prepare a letter(s) for the CG reporting all Marines competing for meritorious promotion to Sergeant and Corporal, using the format contained in enclosure (5). This letter must include all nominees, listed in ranking sequence, within 24 hours of completion of the board.

Except as noted, percentages are based upon the on board strength of the grade from which promoted, as computed on the first day of the fiscal quarter. If percentage computations result in one or more promotions, the remaining fraction will be discarded. If percentage computations result in less than one promotion, the fractions from these percentages (less graduating privates) will be accumulated by grade until one whole promotion is realized. Should the accumulation of quarterly fractions result in less than one promotion by the last quarter of the FY, one promotion may be effected.
